Since 2012, EBEN has welcomed talented young musicians from across Europe and offered them the opportunity to perform in the exceptional environment of Lagrasse, classed as one of the most beautiful villages in France. A hugely important feature of the festival is that attendance is free. We believe that it is unique in that it is open to anyone regardless of means whilst offering a very varied programme of classical music of international quality. Music lovers, tourists from every country, inhabitants of Lagrasse and the Region come together under the medieval market place in the village, only a few steps from the Orbieu river and the thousand year old abbey.

This year our festival, described by a journalist as » a drawing room open to the air and full moon » proposes an hommage to Claude Debussy on the occasion of the centenary of his death. And of course En Blanc et Noir is the name of a sonata composed by Debussy in 1915.

2018 is also the centenary of the birth of Leonard Bernstein and we will be celebrating with his symphonic music and other lighter pieces.

EBEN offers a springboard to young pianists at the outset of their careers and showcases their talents.

In pursuing our educational objectives EBEN is proud to partner the regional Conservatoires de Musique. Students have been invited to play during the Piano à Volonté afternoon which opens the festival at 14hr. In the same spirit of partnership, amateur pianists are also invited to play a piece of their own choosing.
